Trenton knows every detail matters. As an intern at the Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation, he ensures the relentless pursuit of equity is as effective and efficient as possible.

Trenton expects to graduate from Philander Smith College this year with a BA in Political Science. He is also the Polemarch for the Beta Tau Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

During his down time, Trenton loves to read books and watch his favorite Netflix series. Trenton is preparing for his journey to law school and hopes to one day become an attorney. A native of Dallas, Texas, Trenton’s family is still his strongest support system despite geographic distance.
